

Contents

Provenance Research on Collections from Colonial Contexts

Principles, Approaches,
Challenges

Opening Remarks

16 Katja Lembke

Director of the Lower Saxony State Museum Hanover and Spokesperson of the PAESE Project

Welcome

20 Björn Thümmler

Former Minister of Science and Culture in Lower Saxony

22 Adelheid Wessler

Head of Team Societal Transformations, Volkswagen Foundation

24 Volker Epping

President of Leibniz University Hannover

Introduction

28 Provenance Research and Dialogue

Claudia Andratschke and Lars Müller

Opening

- 52 Process & Materiality: An Ongoing Conversation within Myself and Between, Spaces, Objects and the Moments Unseen
Syowia Kyambi

I. Dialogues between Theory and Practice: Approaches and Case Studies of Postcolonial Provenance Research

- 80 Introduction
Brigitte Reinwald
- 86 Holistic Visions of Fang Heritage Objects:
The Problem of Endogenous and Exogenous Categorisation
Drossilia Dikegue Igouwe
- 102 What is it about?
Attempts to Interpret the Biography of a Portrait Figure from the West Region of Cameroon
Bianca Baumann

II. Collecting Strategies and Collectors' Networks

- 116 Introduction
Jennifer Tadge
- 120 Colonial Collecting Strategies
Ndzodo Awono
- 136 Provenance Research on Hamburg's Colonial World Trade Networks
Jamie Dau
- 152 Museums, Missionaries and Middlemen:
German Ethnographic Museums and their Lutheran Missionary Collectors in Central Australia (1890 to 1914)
Olaf Geerken

- 164 The World in Showcases:
The Collectors' Networks of the Roemer-Museum Hildesheim and the Growth of the Ethnographic Collection, 1844–1914
Sabine Lang

III. Managing, Using and Researching Objects in Collections

- 176 Introduction
Hannah Stieglitz
- 180 Colonial Entanglement, "South Sea" Imaginations and Knowledge Production
Katharina Nowak
- 194 Conservation of African Cultural Heritage:
A Comparative Study between Cameroon and Germany
Paule-Clisthène Dassi Koudjou
- 206 Lost Objects, Missing Documentation:
Provenance Research on the Ethnographic Collection of the German Institute of Tropical and Subtropical Agriculture in Witzenhausen
Martin Nadarzinski
- 218 Becoming Ethnographic Objects:
Three Rattles from East Africa in the Ethnographic Collection at Göttingen University and their (Missing) Stories
Hannah Stieglitz

IV. Transdisciplinary Provenance Research on Objects from Colonial Contexts

- 238 Introduction
Sabine Lang
- 242 The Coloniality of Natural History Collections
Katja Kaiser

- 258 Same Provenances in Different Disciplines:
A Transdisciplinary Approach
Jennifer Tadge

V. Cases of Restitution

- 272 Introduction
Larissa Förster
- 278 Recent Cases of Repatriation and Restitution from Germany to Namibia:
From Two Perspectives
Claudia Andratschke and Nzila M. Libanda-Mubusisi
- 292 Towards Restitution and Beyond:
Reflections on a Multi-layered Dialogue Regarding the Cartridge Belt of Kahimemua at the Brunswick Municipal Museum
Rainer Hatoum
- 304 Kahimemua Nguvauva, his Belt, and the Colonial War of 1896
Interview with Lars Müller, Frederick Nguvauva and Werner Hillebrecht

VI. Cooperation Projects on Cameroonian Collections: Experiences and Perspectives

- 318 Introduction
Thomas Laely
- 324 Entangled Objects, Entangled Histories:
A Collaborative Provenance Research on a Heterogeneous
Colonial-Era Collection
Karin Guggeis, Ngome Elvis Nkome and Joseph B. Ebune
- 336 Re-engaging with an Ethnographic Collection from Colonial Cameroon through Collaborative Provenance Research
Isabella Bozsa and Rachel Mariembe

- 352 Serendipitous Intersections and Long-Term Dialogue:
Art and Research as Collaborative Exchanges
Silvia Forni and Hervé Youmbi

VII. Hidden Objects – Sensitive and Restricted Objects in Museum Collections: Issues Surrounding their Storage, Access, Consultations, and Potential Repatriation

- 362 Introduction
Mareike Späth
- 368 First Principles
Michael Pickering
- 382 Exhibiting Restricted Objects in Museums:
Ruptures, Dilemmas and Challenges around Restitution to West Cameroon
Victor Bayena Ngitir

VIII. Law versus Justice? An Intercultural Approach to the Problem of European Collections of Colonial Provenance

- 394 Introduction
Christoph-Eric Mecke
- 398 Contexts of Colonial Acquisition:
Historical and Normative Elements of Legal Provenance Research
Stephan Meder
- 416 The Legal and Moral Conscience of Justice in European Collections of Colonial Provenance: The Bangwa Quest for Restitution and Reparations
Chief Charles A. Taku
- 432 Contested Heritage: A Human Rights Law Approach to Claims
Evelien Campfens

- 448 Shifting Goalposts: A Legal Perspective on Cultural Property
Naazima Kamardeen
- 460 Law versus Justice? Colonial-Era Cultural Heritage in Germany
Christoph-Eric Mecke

IX. Whose Voices?

Beyond the PAESE-Conference

- 490 Whose Voices?
On Power, Terminology and the Definition of Community:
A Postscript
*Albert Gouaffo, Flower Manase,
Nzila M. Libanda-Mubusisi and Tommy Y. Buga*
- 498 Beyond the PAESE-Conference:
Voices from Africa and Papua New Guinea
Richard Tsogang Fossi

Appendix

- 510 Biographies of the Authors