

EVENTS AND EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMME

Accompanying exhibitions

'The F*room' – pop-up exhibition with works by HAW Hamburg students in the Freiraum of the MK&G, developed in the seminar 'Annoying, too loud, too messy' under the guidance of Lea Sievertsen and Heike Grebin

Exhibition of works created by pupils from Gymnasium Bondenwald and Gymnasium Kaiser-Friedrich-Ufer as part of the cooperative project 'Kunstpioniere', supervised by the teachers Anna Brakutt and Silke Wißmann as well as the artist Clara Umbach

Exhibition of protest posters produced in the workshop 'Poster, Power, Protest' with Anna Unterstab and Anne Meerpohl and displayed during the International Feminist Day protest marches on 8 March 2023

'Wiki Women – Working together to fill the gaps' presented 35 female designers whose works are contained in the MK&G collection. An edit-a-thon was held to create and expand Wikipedia articles on these creative figures and enrich them with images, with part II of the exhibition focusing on another 10 designers.
