

7	Preface Annemarie Jaeggi	Opening Section
8	Introduction Andrea Bärnreuther	From Bauhaus and Modernism to Today's Challenges for Housing and Urban Planning
20	Questions and Keywords	45	Opening Speech: The Bauhaus— Workshop of Modernism. A Complex of Different Teachings and Practices, and Irresolvable Areas of Tension and its New Design as a Success Story Winfried Nerdinger
		73	Keynote Olaf Scholz
		81	Opening Panel Discussion with Olaf Scholz, Winfried Nerdinger, and the Audience chaired by Anh-Linh Ngo
		109	Winfried Nerdinger in an Interview with Andrea Bärnreuther
		121	Taking a Stand. A Film Project of the Nelson Mandela School, Berlin, and the Paula Fürst School, Berlin
		123	Introduction into the Film Project of the Nelson Mandela School, Berlin Florentine Baumann
		127	Introduction into the Film Project of the Paula Fürst School, Berlin Kirsten Zenns
		133	Exercises in Holding a Stance with School Students and Researchers. A Call for Cross-generational Dialogue Carina Kitzenmaier

Section I

- Planning and Building for a «New World»? Conflict Situations, Areas of Tension, and Learning Processes
- 141 Reflections on Hannes Meyer's Trajectory of Displacement and the Idea and Potential of a «Marginal Counter-History»
Ryan Fred Long
- 153 Planning for «The New World». Hannes Meyer in the Soviet Union and Mexico
Raquel Franklin
- 169 The Formalism and the Real: Bruno Taut's Translation of Neues Bauen in Exile
Paola Ardizzola
- 185 Richard Paulick: From the Bauhaus to the Stalinallee and Back. An Enquiry into the «Evolution» of a German Architect
Ulrich Hartung
- 199 «times to come will not care for stream-lining and machines to live in». Richard Paulick in Shanghai in Search of a More Humane Architecture
Eduard Kögel
- 213 Panel Discussion I with Ryan Fred Long, Raquel Franklin, Paola Ardizzola, Ulrich Hartung, and the Audience chaired by Titia Rixt Hoekstra

Section II

- Bauhaus and Bauhaus Pedagogy in Sweden, Latin America, and China. Transfer, Translation, and Transformation Processes, Power Relations and (Geo-)Politics
- 233 Reception, Exile, and the People's Home—Some Aspects of Sweden's Relationship to the Bauhaus
Atli Magnus Seelow
- 247 Re-Imagining Modernization in Chile—The Active School Movement, Integral Co-op Architecture, Second-Order Cybernetics—Lessons from the Bauhaus and Beyond
David Maulén de los Reyes
- 263 Born from the Periphery—Gui Bonsiepe's Contribution to a Symbolic Production of Design within the Cultural-Political Context of Salvador Allende's Chile
Susanne Neubauer & Marcelo Mari
- 277 Bauhaus in Chile—The Presence of a School
Fernando Pérez-Oyarzun
- 295 Manifestations of Bauhaus on the Mainland: Historical Advent of China's Modernities in Arts, Crafts, and Architecture
Chin-Wei Chang
- 315 «Anonymous» and «Versioning»: The Dispersion of Bauhaus in China
Zoe Zhang
- 333 Panel Discussion II
with Atli Magnus Seelow, David Maulén de los Reyes, Susanne Neubauer, Chin-Wei Chang, and the Audience chaired by Joaquín Medina Warmburg

Section III

- Historiography and Politics of Memory. Processes of Reception and Repression
- 359 Damnatio Memoriae. The Case of Mart Stam
Simone Hain
- 375 Hannes Meyer and the Bauhaus Brand
Philipp Oswalt
- 383 In the Shadow of Memory—Munio
Weinraub Gitai and Shmuel Mestechkin
Ronny Schüler
- 397 The Myth of the White Bauhaus City
Tel Aviv
Philipp Oswalt
- 409 We Don't Want to Know: Suppressed
Narratives of the White City
Hila Cohen-Schneiderman
- 425 Panel Discussion III
with Simone Hain, Philipp Oswalt, Ronny Schüler, and the Audience chaired by Doreen Mende
- 441 Final Discussion with Titia Rixt Hoekstra, Joaquín
Medina Warmburg, Doreen
Mende, Andrea Bärnreuther, and the Audience chaired by Annemarie Jaeggi

Epilogue

- 457 Built on Care: An Architecture Curriculum for Living with an Infected Planet
Elke Krasny
- 469 Bauhaus-Méditerranée. The Art of Dwelling Differently in the World
Thierry Fabre
- 483 Authors and Publication Team
- 488 Index
- 493 Photo credits