

Introduction

- 4 Elisabeth Tietmeyer and Dagmar Neuland-Kitzerow
Why this book?
- 8 barbara caveng
“I am a human.” From READY NOW to KUNSTASYL – A chronicle

1. Biographical fates

- 14 Dachil Sado
Myth of Gilgamesh seeking Europa
- 24 Dagmar Neuland-Kitzerow
“I never felt like a complete stranger.” Stations of a flight from Hungary in autumn 1956
- 34 Elisabeth Fendl
Having to go – the moved history of a family from the Bohemian “Erzgebirge”
- 46 Alina Helwig
Between the Crimea, Kazakhstan and Germany – Magdalena Schweiger on the search for home
- 56 Helga Neumann
“This visa issue is the most important issue in our lives right now.” One of many: Anna Seghers in exile, 1933–1947

- 66 Kristina Heizmann
“Guests of the nation” or “guest workers”? Belgian refugees in Great Britain, 1914–1918

- 78 Lennart Johansson and Håkan Nordmark
Emigration from Sweden to America: the example of Signe Karlsdotter

2. Historical context

- 86 Jochen Oltmer
Migration as a historic normality: Europe in global migration processes

3. Institutional remembrance

- 110 Museu da Imigração
Ways and lives of Italian migrants in Brazil at the end of the 19th century
- 120 Myriame Morel-Deledalle
Armenians in Marseilles
- 128 Diana Pardue
Ellis Island: Gateway to the United States

Imprint