

Table of Contents

VII Preface

1 Introduction

7 Tracing José Rizal

13 Rizal, seen through the philosophical lens

The oracle 13 * What can I know? 16 * What should I do? 19 *
What can I hope for? 20 * What is man? 21

25 Hero of the Nation and Citizen of the World

Preliminary note 25 * A brief outline of Rizal's life story 26 *
How Rizal was seen by his adversaries 28 * About language and translation 30 * Colonialism's social cancer 36 * The secret of illegible writing 42 * A plea for doubt 45 * The enlightener's message 49

53 Rizal's Europe

Prelude 53 * Land of freedom? 56 * European turmoil 59 *
Rizal's scholarly homelands 64 * Imperial violence and the European discourse on ethics 68 * About the foundations of legitimate rule 72 * Rizal, a "new Moses"? 74 * Utopias of power and of emancipation through knowledge 76

- 81 Utopia and Apocalypticism
The Philippines a century hence 81 * Technical, political and moral transformation 84 * The spirit of nation 88 * Renewal and invention in historiopoetic narration 90 * For an appropriation of precolonial Philippine history 93
- 97 Rizal's serious-comic novels
The author's choice 97 * Place, time and personnel of the plot 102 * Against the abuse of power 104 * Rhetoric of carnivalesque eloquence 108 * Who is the Lord, who the Work? 111
- 117 A rare transcontinental example of late 19th-century critiques of racism. Focusing on Ferdinand Blumentritt, José Rizal and Franz Boas
Blumentritt's insight 117 * German-American anti-racism 120 * Intelligence innate or acquired? 123 * "The law has no skin, nor does reason have nostrils" 126
- 129 Hunter-gatherer Rizal
A scientific tribute 129 * A visit to Dresden and the impact 131 * Dead nature in exchange for "Geist" 135 * The graveyards of physical anthropology 140 * Works and days in Talisay 144
- 149 Rizal's Wanderlust. A trilogy and a postscript
I Wandering and travelling in different worlds 149 * II Rizal in the air: A brief meditation on José Rizal's longing for freedom 156 * III World literature in the luggage 165 * Postscript 175
- 181 Spain pays homage to José Rizal
Carta al Director del Instituto Cervantes Madrid 182 * To the Director of the Cervantes Institute Mr. Luis García Montero 184
- 187 Index