

Contents

Reflections on Inter- and Transdisciplinary Work in Social Sciences and Humanities Georg Mildenberger, Diamantis Panagiotopoulos, Gudrun-Christine Schimpf & Fabienne Wallenwein	1
--	---

Part I: Theoretical Perspectives

Social Innovation in Cultural Landscape Conservation Georg Mildenberger & Gudrun-Christine Schimpf	15
Social Incubation: Potentials for Rural Revitalization Alexandra Gaidos	25
Solving for X. How to Assess Cultural Values Inherent in the Landscape? Guillermo Reher	31
Landscape Heritage and the Commons Potential. The Case of the Aegean Sea Stelios Lekakis	37
From Region to “Regionalization” Despina Catapoti	45
“Simply Beautiful” and “Always Worth a Trip”? Some Thoughts on Modern Ruins and the Visualization of Heritage Cord Arendes	53

Part II: Practice-oriented Perspectives

‘Excavating’ Cultural Landscapes. Practicing Archaeology as a Creative Discipline Diamantis Panagiotopoulos	65
---	----

Contents

Social Processes of Heritage: Insights from Rice Terrace Landscapes in Southwestern China and Taiwan Fabienne Wallenwein	75
Potential of Modern Geotechnologies for Analyzing, Monitoring, and Communicating the Sustainable Development of UNESCO Designated Sites Alexander Siegmund, Maike Petersen, Emmanuel Eze & Johannes Keller	89
Cultural Landscape as an Art of Survival and Its Implications for Contemporary Landscape Architecture Hexing Chang & Huixian Wang	99
The Revitalization of Mt IDA (Psiloritis) in the Digital Age: A Glocal Approach to Cultural Planning for the Rural Communities of Mt Psiloritis Crete (Greece) Georgios A. Kalomoiris	119
World Heritage Property “Prehistoric Pile Dwellings around the Alps:” Knowledge Transfer or Tourism Promotion? Barbara Fath & Sabine Hagmann	129
Index	137