

LIST OF TABLES

| | | |
|-----------|--|-----|
| Table 4.1 | Categories, types, and subtypes of archaeological remains. | 33 |
| Table 4.2 | Calculating site size from the radius of field scatters. | 36 |
| Table 4.3 | Classical chronology and sequence of events. | 39 |
| Table 4.4 | Overview of the study areas. | 45 |
| Table 5.1 | Survey maps, sites, density, and survey method in the western study area. | 50 |
| Table 5.2 | Settlement size according to archaeological period. | 54 |
| Table 5.3 | Distance of Hellenistic sites from Nahal Besor. | 60 |
| Table 5.4 | Distance of Early Roman sites from Nahal Besor. | 64 |
| Table 5.5 | Distance between Late Roman sites and Nahal Besor. | 68 |
| Table 5.6 | Distance between Byzantine sites and Nahal Besor. | 71 |
| Table 6.1 | Survey maps, sites, density, and survey method in the central study area. | 88 |
| Table 6.2 | Settlement size according to archaeological period. | 91 |
| Table 6.3 | Large Byzantine settlements of the Negev. | 122 |
| Table 7.1 | Survey maps, sites, density, and survey methods for the eastern study area. | 140 |
| Table 7.2 | Settlement size according to archaeological period in the eastern study area. | 145 |
| Table 8.1 | Urban population density estimates. | 173 |
| Table 8.2 | Minimum and maximum population of Byzantine towns and villages. | 176 |
| Table 9.1 | Change in religion of the population of northern Negev over time. | 209 |